

Skagit Community Resource Coalition

Last Thursday of Each Month, 2-3 p.m.

Head Start / SPARC Community Room

320 Pacific Place, Mount Vernon

Purpose: The Skagit Community Resources Coalition is a gathering of non-profits, agencies of government, church groups, and other community-based organizations committed to sharing resources and knowledge to better serve low-income residents of Skagit County.

About The Meetings

The Community Resource Coalition is for all community service providers and organizations to share information and learn about other resources in the community. All organizations that provide a service to low-income families, whether private, faith-based, non-profit or governmental, are encouraged to attend and participate. Each month usually has one featured presenter from an organization, taking approximately 15 to 30 minutes to highlight a program or provide information on a particular area of interest. The last 30 minutes of the meeting provide a round-table update session for all attendees.

Where Can I Find Out More? How Do I Join?

The monthly meetings are currently organized by Community Action of Skagit County. To participate or to make a presentation regarding your organization, please contact Justin Keefe at (360) 416-7585 or justink@communityactionskagit.org. RSVPs are not required but highly encouraged to ensure there will be space.
